Case managers provide resources to families to include mental health and substance abuse referrals. Families are provide with food and other necessities through donations from volunteers. The shelter is operational 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year.

-Rapid Rehousing is a program designed to help families obtain housing quickly, increase self-sufficiency and remain permanently housed.

Housing Stabilization Specialists work with families to identify housing options in Arlington County. Bridges subsidizes rent 100% for the first three months while families begin to get back on their feet. The next three months, the subsidy decreases to 75%, then three months later to 50%, and so on. The idea is that within a year, the families will be self-sufficient and able to maintain rent and utilities on their own without additional subsidies from Bridges. The housing options secured are meant to be long-term housing solutions with rental agreement and utilities in the family's name.
