

ARE PARTNERING TOGETHER FOR

AN ARLINGTON HOLIDAY TOY DRIVE

THROUGH MONDAY, DECEMBER 6TH

You can make a child's dreams come true this holiday season by donating new or lightly used toys.

YOU CAN DROP OFF TOYS AT THE FOLLOWING LOCATIONS:

Phoenix Bikes: 909 S Dinwiddie St, Arlington, VA 22204

William Jeffreys Tavern: 2301 Columbia Pike, Arlington, VA 22204

Papillon Cycles: 2805 Columbia Pike, Arlington, VA 22204

Manoukian Brothers Oriental Rugs: 2330 Columbia Pike, Arlington, VA 22204

Idido's Coffee and Social House: 1107 S Walter Reed Dr UNIT 102, Arlington, VA 22204

Centro Apartments: 950 S George Mason Dr, Arlington, VA 22204

Penrose Square Apartments: 2501 9th Rd South Suite 100, Arlington, VA 22204

2121 Columbia Pike: 2121 Columbia Pike, Arlington, VA 22204

2200 Columbia Pike: 2200 Columbia Pike, Arlington, VA 22204

Quinn's on the Corner: 1776 Wilson Blvd, Arlington, VA 22209

Pentagon Mixed Martial Arts: 1041 S. Edgewood St., Arlington, VA 22204

FOR QUESTIONS, PLEASE CONTACT
VOLUNTEER@BRIDGES2.ORG OR 703-525-7177 X119

Bridges to Independence, founded in 1985, is a nonprofit whose vision is to break intergenerational cycles of poverty. Bridges carries out this vision through three core programs: operating Arlington County's largest emergency family shelter, providing a housing program, and providing a community empowerment program in the Green Valley neighborhood of Arlington County. All families in these programs are offered supportive services to include workforce development, financial empowerment, youth development, referral services, and case management.